Contest will consist of one song being performed during the preliminary round on stage on the Frontier Days grounds judged by an impartial panel of judges. The top five scorers will be called back to sing in the finals following the preliminary round. Contestants will be drawn at random to sing. Songs will be performed on a first come first served basis. No contestant can sing the same song as another contestant. No duets allowed. All performers must be amateurs. (Not under contract or management.) Costumes or clothing with unacceptable art or lettering will not be permitted. Contestants are not allowed to leave the area during their performance. Judges will be provided by Frontier Days, Inc. and Moonlight Entertainment. The decisions of the judges will be final and cannot be contested. Contestants will be judged on a 40 point system. Vocal skills 20 points, showmanship 10 points and audience approval and applause 10 points. Prizes will be awarded to the top three places.

I understand the rules stated above and agree to adhere by them.
